

VIGILANCE OF WESTERLY CHIEF

Vile Nest on Pond Street Cleaned Out Through Efforts of Head of Police Department—Judge Williams Metes Penalty to Warren Coon and Grace Smith—James T. Benson in Jail in Default of Bonds—State School For Beatrice Tucker, 16.

The Third district court, Judge Oliver H. Williams, was in session three hours Monday morning, hearing cases connected with the raid made by Chief of Police Thomas E. Brown and Police Officer Frederick T. Mitchell upon the house occupied by Warren S. Coon, 18 Pond, off Pierce, street, Sunday night. The hearing divulged facts that are unprintable, showing that the underlife of the "spotless town" of Westbury is no better and perhaps no worse than exists in cities noted for general wickedness.

Warren S. Coon was charged with the illegal sale of liquor, with keeping a house of ill fame, a gambling house and a place where lewd and dissolute persons resort. He pleaded not guilty.

Chief Brown's testimony was, in effect, that the place kept by Coon was one of riot and revelry. When he visited the place Sunday night he found Grace Smith, 25, Beatrice Tucker, 16, and James T. Benson, together in the only furnished bedroom in the house. The Tucker girl was nude. The bedroom door was open, and in the kitchen adjoining the room, Alfred Carleton and a man known as The Clam Dealer, testified that the place was frequented by lewd and disorderly persons.

Police Officer Mitchell gave testimony in corroboration of that given by the chief. He saw Grace Smith and the Tucker girl, and said that the Smith woman was not the wife of Coon, and that the Tucker girl had no parents, no home, and frequented such places.

Police Sergeant Edward E. West testified that when on a tour of investigation a couple of weeks ago he saw the Smith woman at the Coon place, which was a place frequented by lewd and disorderly persons, and where liquor was drunk to excess.

Frank Vard testified that he resided in the house next to the Coon place and that he had seen many of the undesirable men and women go in and out.

For Your Poor Feet—

The greatest preparation in the world is "Nuclet." It is the only foot powder that absorbs perspiration without caking and destroys odors and prevents antipruritic eruptions without checking perspiration. It prevents all such foot ills as corns, bunions and callouses and keeps and rheumatic pains.

Be convinced: get a trial package at 25c, and if it proves unsatisfactory we will refund your money. The regular tin size contains two and a half times more powder and will be the cheaper for you to buy after the trial package has demonstrated how much good "Nuclet" will really do for you.

"Nuclet" as a body deodorant is as good as "Nuclet" is for the feet.
